Discipline/Behavior Reward Summary:

We utilize “Time Outs” as our main behavioral modification tool. Time Outs involve temporarily separating a child from an environment where unacceptable behavior has occurred. They will write their name on our “TIME OUT” chart under the appropriate day, which parents can monitor. They will then go to our “Time Out” area during Centers, Outside play, etc. Children’s time-out period will be based on their age (i.e. a 10yr old will have a 10 minute timeout). If unacceptable behavior occurs frequently or is extreme, we will utilize others methods, such as restrictions on privileges, being sent to the Director’s office, and parent involvement. We strive to maintain an open line of communication with parents/guardians in regard to their child’s behaviors.

This school year, we will be adding a visual warning system with our time-outs. Description below:

- Green Slip = At the beginning of every new day all kids will begin with a green slip.
- Yellow Slip = If or when a child does something they are not supposed to – talking on red cup, disrupting a teacher whilst giving instructions etc. – they are to move their green slip to yellow, which is their first warning.
- Red Slip = If a child continues to act up then they will move their slip from yellow to red. When a child gets a red slip, they are to do a timeout.
- Going Back to Green = After a child does their time out, they can move their card back to green. When the child moves back to green the process starts over.

We will also be using “Oak Forest Acorns” for our behavior reward system. Each child will have an Oak tree with their name on it in our main classroom. If they demonstrate good behavior throughout the week (i.e. helpful to staff, following instructions, kind/helpful to other students, etc.). They will be rewarded with an ACORN. If your child has an ACORN at the end of the week they will be rewarded with candy or popsicles. Each week, two students (a Teacher’s Choice & the child with the most ACORNS during the week) will be given a prize card to cash in to use for: choose your own snack, double snack, large candy bar, line leader all day, etc.
